

◆ A letter to Adoptive Parents and Adoptees ◆

Date of Release: July 04, 2011 Source: CCAA

Dear adoptive parents and your adopted children,

First of all, please accept our warmest regards from China Center for Children's Welfare and Adoption (formerly known as CCAA)! Though thousands of miles apart from each other, we have our hearts connected with you. The happy growth of these adopted children has always been our deepest blessings and best wish! Every little progress they make and every innocent laugh they give will bring immense joy to us.

On the occasion of the fifteenth anniversary of the founding of China Center for Children's Welfare and Adoption (CCCWA), we will hold a series of activities in the theme of "Adoption Month", during which we will edit books, hold photo exhibitions, make publication videos, etc. to showcase the happy life of our children adopted by foreign families and introduce inter-country adoption to more people.

For this purpose, we would like to seek your assistance in the collection of material which reflect the life stories and growing experiences of adopted children in your families, including articles (attached with photos), audio tracks and videos, etc., and would be very much appreciative that you would actively participate in this activity and contribute to our collection of material. It is hoped that the contribution would truly reflect the characteristics of the adopted child and their healthy spiritual status, with sincere feeling and moving stories. It could be written from various aspects, or focus on one aspect of the child's growth. It could describe the integration of the adopted children into their families and communities and their own growing experience, or focus on one specific period of the child's growth in a specific environment. It could also be moving stories of adoptive families getting along with adopted children, or unforgettable moments of the children making every little progress and achievements in their growth. (Please refer to the specifics for more information.)

Material collected would be used for publicity, publication and publishing for purpose of public welfare. Attached you will find a Statement, the signature on which will be considered as agreement by the contributor to the above-mentioned use of his/her contribution.

Contributions are recommended to be sent to us before July 10, 2011, but those later than this date are also welcome.

Finally, we would like to extend our sincere gratitude to all the adoptive families who have been so committed to the healthy development of our children! And we wish all the Chinese children adopted internationally enjoy a happy growth and everything the best!

China Center for Children's Welfare and Adoption

Specifics:

Please indicate information such as names of the adoptive parents, the country where you are from, residence area, serial number of your applications in CCCWA, name of the adopted child (present name and name at adoption), age (present age and age at adoption), province where the child is from, orphanage, etc. in the contribution, attached with certificates or copy of certifications of the child if the child has achieved remarkable performance in schooling, science, arts, sports, etc. In order to reflect vividly the life of adopted children, it is hoped that each contribution be attached with at least four color photos of the adopted child at different stages of their growth (photo size of 4 by 6 inches). Please include simple descriptions for each photo, audio track, or video. Photos are better to be at least 8 million pixels. Please sign the contribution and indicate the relationship between the author and the adopted child.

If the child has been covered in mass media reports or has achieved remarkable performance in schooling, science, arts, sports, etc., please attach material of media reports or copy of certificates to the article.

Contributions (attached with photos) could be sent to us through email. Large documents such as audio tracks, videos (or a number of photos) are recommended to be burnt into disks and sent to the Adopter's Eligibility Review Department of CCCWA (Address: Room 1303, Sun Light International Plaza, No.16, Wang Jia Yuan Lane, Dong Cheng District, Beijing. 100027).
